

TEACHING COUNCIL ELECTIONS 2024

VOTE FOR

Ursula O'Connor

Mulroy College, Milford, Co Donegal

Post-Primary ETB Sector - Midlands-North-West Constituency

My name is Ursula O'Connor and I teach English and History in Mulroy College, Co. Donegal. Originally from Kildare, I have taught in Donegal for many years.

As a TUI activist and Chair of the Co. Donegal TUI Branch, I have a strong track record, locally and nationally, in representing effectively the best interests of teachers.

I am the TUI representative on the NCCA development group for the new Leaving Certificate subject - Drama, Film and Theatre Studies and I am a member of the Executive of the Irish National Organisation of Teachers of English (INOTE) where I played an active role in the successful campaign against moving Paper One in Leaving Certificate English to fifth year.

As teachers on the ground we are acutely aware of the deficits in funding, the intensification of our work, and the overwhelming demands on our time, including our personal time.

Elect me and I will give you the strong voice that we need on the Teaching Council.

Vote for me as your representative on the Teaching Council and I will:

- Advocate for a viable career structure for teachers, with a greater range of promotional opportunities
- Protect the rights of teachers who are brought before the Council ensuring respectful due process
- Pursue recognition of the work overload and work intensification that is being imposed on teachers and demand its reversal
- Demand streamlining of the bureaucracy that makes the registration process so lengthy and complex
